Bikepgh.org
Pittsburgh's best resource for bikers includes maps, resources, event, and safety information.

Downtown Bike Lanes (see map)
Protected bike lanes on Penn Avenue from the 16th Street Bridge to Stanwix Street, 6th Street from Penn Avenue to Fort Duquesne Blvd., and across Clemente Bridge.

Healthydepgh.com
Healthy Ride Pittsburgh is a public bike sharing system, operated by Pittsburgh Bike Share with numerous bike stations in Downtown. The bikes are available to rent 24/7, 365 days a year.

Three Rivers Heritage Trail
A multi-use, 24-mile riverfront system, has segments on both banks of Pittsburgh's three rivers that provide access to city neighborhoods, business districts, and local attractions. The trail highlights Pittsburgh's history through Intertec Signage. It also serves as the Pittsburgh hub for such other trail system connections as the Great Allegheny Passage, the Erie-to-Pittsburgh Trail, and the Pittsburgh-to-Harrisburg Main Line Canal Greenway. Visit friendsoftheriverfront.org for detailed information and maps.

Walkpittsburgh.org
Resources to encourage walking as a commuting option, to improve pedestrian safety, and to convey the health and economic benefits of walking.

Amtrak.com
Information on passenger rail service available in Pittsburgh.

Commuteinfo.org
Commuting options for workers and students including regional transit, vanpooling, carpooling, biking, and park-and-ride facilities in southwestern Pennsylvania. 1-888-819-6110.

Portauthority.org
Check out the T Free Fare zone including all T stations from First Avenue to Allegheny Station on the North Sore. It's free 24/7.

Remember: pay when you enter all Port Authority buses and the T. All fares are $2.50 with a ConnectCard; $2.75 with cash. Transfers are $1 with ConnectCard; full fare required if using cash. Children up to age 5 ride free with fare-paying adult.

All Port Authority bus routes are equipped with bike racks. Bikes can also be brought aboard the T or Mon Incline.

Transitapp.com
Upcoming departure times are available for nearby transit service in big text and bright colors — no taps required. Plan your trip, set reminders, and receive notifications about disruptions.

Uber.com/cities/pittsburgh & lyft.com/cities/pittsburgh
Uber and Lyft, transportation network companies in Pittsburgh, connect paying passengers through the internet or their mobile apps with drivers who provide the transportation in their own non-commercial vehicles.

Zipcar.com
